

International Day of Peace 2021

Mr. Jun-gyu Park

Mr. Jun-gyu Park is a senior at Konkuk University in Seoul, Republic of Korea. This year, he served as the 70th captain of the school club, UNSA(UN Students Association), and worked as a team leader in SDGs organization, KYPS(Korea Youth Platform on SDGs). He is very interested in protecting the environment in the climate crisis. In particular, because he is interested in transnational environmental policy, he is majoring in politics & diplomacy at university and plans to go to graduate school to major in environmental economics.

Currently, he has begun studying French as well as English and plans to build a career in UN-related organizations or environmental organizations next year. After obtaining a master's degree in graduate school, he hopes to be in charge of project finance management at an international organization related to the environment. When he spends his leisure time, he likes to travel with his friends and eat the local food. He is also a passionate supporter of the Liverpool Football Club. Therefore, he traveled to England two years ago to see the club's game in person.
