

International Day of Peace 2021

Ms. Dahee Kim is a freshman at Sejong University in Seoul, Korea. She is a member of Academic department of UNAROK(United Nations Association Republic of Korea) and also the vice-chairman of the Sejong branch of UNSA. She was in charge of hosting this year's summer seminar, and has planned the ongoing 'Flogging campaign'. Debating with the UNSA members about various topics related to the international society is a great thrill for her.

A freshman in Sejong University majoring International Studies, she explores diverse societies while practicing Chinese and English. She enjoys learning new languages to communicate with foreigners. She plans to keep up the international activities related to UN to play to her strengths and interests.