

International Day of Peace 2021

Mr. Seung-woo Baek

Mr. Seung-woo Baek is a senior at Handong Global University in Pohang, Gyeong-buk, Korea. As a student at the university, he is working with the other students to promote achieving SDGs, Sustainable Development Goals. An organization that he is participating is called ASPIRE. ASPIRE tries to find the ways to promote SDGs to the public and deliver education to the high school students in the community. For now, he has taken a seat in the organization as the representative of ASPIRE, which he does much of the foreign activities for the organization. However, he emphasizes that he can't do the all things without assistance from the other staff and all the achievements that have been done are all thanks to the staff. His life slogan is "No pain, no gain". The result will tell the public how much he worked. Therefore, he always work hard on every single thing and doesn't want to miss minor things.

International Day of Peace (September 21)