

International Day of Peace 2021

Ms. Jennifer Kim

Ms. Jennifer Kim is a Director of The Peace School. She entered as a student in 1978, the same year the organization founded Peace Day in Chicago. She quickly became a volunteer, completed instructor training and began teaching Peace Breathing, yoga and other practices of peace. Jennifer benefitted from nearly two decades of one-on-one training and dialogue with the School's founder, Master Kim's father. In 2008 The Peace School formed the Chicago Build the Peace Committee to collaborate more closely with community organizations and expand the work of Peace Day. Jennifer has served as Chair of the Committee since it was formed. Each year since 2008, the Committee has provided Peace Day materials to every Chicago Public School so that students can engage in positive action for peace on the International Day of Peace. The Committee's Honorary Chair is the Mayor of Chicago. Honorary Co-Chairs include the leaders of Chicago Consular Corps, Chicago Public Schools, Chicago Commission on Human Relations, Illinois Department of Human Rights and more. Jennifer also served as Co-Chair of the Education Peace Team of the International Day of Peace NGO Committee at the United Nations.
