

International Day of Peace 2021

Mr. Hui-chan Yu

Mr. Hui-chan Yu is a senior at Handong Global University in Pohang, South Korea. He is the manager of UNAI ASPIRE Handong Branch and hopes to interact with numerous people around the world. When he was young, he dreamed of becoming an airplane pilot and wanted to travel various countries to meet people. But now he is interested in international issues and is committed to realizing sustainable development goals for everyone in the world. Over the past four years, he has been paying attention to the environment and human rights issues, going to listen to the stories of the minority in person, and thinking about how to achieve more human rights growth. He majored in counseling psychology and information communication technology and is studying how to use it to achieve SDGs.

International Day of Peace (September 21)