

International Day of Peace 2021

Rev. Norio Sakai

Rev. Norio Sakai has served as a chairperson of the Japanese Chapter of the International Association for Religious Freedom (IARF) since 2002. He has served as a member of the International Trustee of the World Conference of Religions for Peace (WCRP) since 1999. He was chairperson of the Board of Directors of Rissho Kosei-kai from 1996 to 2001. He is committed to peace-making activities through IARF and Religions for Peace (RfP) movements. He encouraged the growth and active involvement of faith-inspired grass-rooted people and business leaders in these movements. He has also contributed to establishing the Association of Parliamentarians to Support the Activities of Religions for Peace International in Japan.
